May 4th, 2010

Dear brethren,

Rain, rain and more rain...we are thankful for such blessings especially because our traditional rain-period is supposed to be over. The nights are now slowly getting longer and more and more people are staying home because of the cold and dark, but those who want to do the will of the Father continue "in season and out of season". My family and I are doing well and we thank God for all His blessings which make working in His Kingdom possible. We pray that you are prospering especially in the spiritual realm.

Engagements:

BRAKPAN CONGREGATION:

How blessed we are to have brethren in other areas who are as keen to study the word of God and with whom we can fellowship to learn lessons of such importance to our spiritual lives. Hosea continues to be a vessel of God to plead with the children of Israel and by extension to us to not forsake but remember the Lord. The brethren at Brakpan are digging deeper in our search for the truth embedded in the word of God through the prophet Hosea – their constant reminder, by the help of their God, to return, illustrates to us how God constantly implores the rest of mankind even today, with the help of God and His word, to return (12:6) and do those things which are pleasing in His sight.

KWA-THEMA SPRINGS CONGREGATION:

Our study of the book of Ephesians is progressing very well and those in attendance are gaining invaluable insights into the truths of God revealed in this compact epistle. This was the first book I studied with Paul Williams when he taught me the truth and it continues to hold a special place in my heart having opened up my understanding of the importance of the church of Jesus Christ. We have gained an additional student in the form of an 83 year old man who is from one of the denominations and is just as impressed about the value of the church Jesus promised and did establish as I was when I first learned about it. It is good to see that the strength of the Gospel does not deminish with time but remains a potent force of renewal for everyone willing to listen and learn.

BRIXTON CONGREGATION:

One of our young ladies at Brixton is relocating to Cape Town. Vanity Cardoso is like a daughter to us and her departure from our congregation has left a void which we will not be able to fill with anyone else. Fortunately it seems like her transfer will only be for a year and we hope and pray that she will return to us after a very fruitful stay in Cape Town.

On the other hand a young man, Richard Harding who came to us from Zimbabwe in 2003 but had to relocate to the Eastern Cape due to work requirements has now returned to us and will be with us for at least a year. Richard is a very conscientious person as far as life and in particular his Christian obligations are concerned. We have gain a valuable asset to the Brixton congregation in this young man

OTHER EVENTS:

On Saturday April 24th, Trevor contacted me to arrange for the facilities at the Brixton building to baptise a young man into Christ. Mbekezeli Zwane is 17 years of age and in grade 10 and a very serious young man when it comes to serving God. He had been attending the Orlando congregation for some time and decided he would follow Christ's command to be united with Him in His death and be raised to walk in newness of life. We all rejoiced at this young man's commitment which he expressed in the form of a good confession to be faithful to the Lord from henceforth. Please remember Mbekezeli in your prayers

Brethren, Sylvia and I would like remind you of our thankfulness for your continued support. Please continue to pray for the work in Johannesburg South Africa and particularly for the congregations with whom we have fellowship in the work of the Lord

Greetings to the church of God in your locality

Your servants in Christ
