

REPORT: ALAN & SYLVIA FOX

April 30th, 2011

Dear brethren,

The sad news of the deaths of so many people who happened to be in the path of the tornado that wreaked havoc in several States in the US, filled our hearts with pain and sorrow. We pray that those who lost loved ones will find consolation in our God of comfort and we will continue in prayer for those so affected by the loss of persons and property.

Sylvia and I are in good health and blessed and pray that we in turn will have the opportunity to be a blessing to others.

Engagements:

BRAKPAN CONGREGATION:

The book of Amos continues to be of great inspiration to all of us who are involved in the study. We are about to do the last chapter and are left with a very clear message from God: "His judgements are just and final"

Though it be difficult to see through the gloom that characterizes this book, in the end the final message is not so much about what will be lost but rather what will be gained through "the raising up of the tabernacle of David" (Acts 15:16~18)

The saints here have indicated that they would next like to study a New Testament epistle and we are looking forward to that session as well.

KWA-THEMA SPRINGS CONGREGATION:

The study with the Mormons still has not materialized. There seems to be a problem connecting with them and everything hinges on the Christian they tried to influence, who is to make the appointment. She has been away on holiday most of April.

We are continuing with 1 Corinthians and our last lesson has been on chapter 14 and the exercising of spiritual gifts, particularly speaking in tongues and prophesying. Our classes are likely to be moved to a Saturday to include more members of the Kwa-Thema congregation.

BRIXTON CONGREGATION:

Our youngest son PJ has taken over the midweek studies and has chosen the subject of angels. He will lead this for the next six weeks while I prepare for the next series after that which I entitled "Resolutions" (in our Christian faith)

Sunday morning I will be continuing with the subject of the Holy Spirit in our adult class session.

MIDWEEK CLASSES:

My list of engagements was as follows:

Tuesday	Morning	10h00 to 12h00	Ladies class

17h00 to 18h00

Linmeyer / Brakpan evening service

OTHER EVENTS:

Sylvia and I travelled to Cornelia congregation in the Free State province to attend a Gospel meeting arranged for the period: Friday April 22, 2011 to Sunday April 24, 2011

The theme of the meeting was: "True Christianity means that..."

My contribution to the lessons was on the subject of "Our Character is Christ-like"

The lessons were very uplifting even though we could only attend on the Saturday and for a short while.

REBIRTHS:

Thelma Walker is 79 years old and has been baptized for the remission of her sins. Her grandson and his family (Simon and Fransina Hibbert) who are members at Brixton studied with Thelma for quite some time and we all rejoiced when they informed us that Simon baptized her in their pool on Sunday afternoon April 24th, 2011. We look forward to welcoming Thelma as our new babe in Christ at Brixton

Brethren please remember Thelma in your prayers

Greetings to the church in your area

Your servants in Christ
