

REPORT: ALAN & SYLVIA

November 30th, 2011

Dear brethren,

We are enjoying the summer temperatures and the occasional showers in Johannesburg. Other parts of our country have had more rain for which we are so thankful to God. It is now the holiday season and the death toll on our national roads is always very high during this time. Our prayer is that people would be more careful and considerate toward others. The authorities have started with their campaign to rid the roads of unroadworthy vehicles and irresponsible drivers, and we applaud them for this. Sylvia and I are doing well health-wise and we pray the same is true for you.

Engagements:

BRAKPAN CONGREGATION:

I now visit and preach here once a month on a Sunday evening. My next appointment is December 4th for their evening service. We've picked up where we left off on our study of the Holy Spirit which I believe will continue for a long time still. There is a young man who joined our class who obviously comes from a charismatic denomination and he has a whole heap of questions on this topic. We've decided to first spend some time showing him what the Scriptures say about the person and work of the Holy Spirit, consequently this will be an extended study.

KWA-THEMA SPRINGS CONGREGATION:

The school holidays have started and we've decided to reschedule our meetings from now on a Thursday afternoon seeing more will be available and Saturdays are now being used for running around for the holiday season stuff. Our study continues on the book of 2 Corinthians and it was sobering to see what non-forgiveness can do to the one who has been wronged as well as to the guilty party.

BRIXTON CONGREGATION:

Eugene Chetty is continuing with his class on a Sunday morning with "The Abundant Life" and I have been dealing with various questions relating to the establishing of Scriptural authority in a practical way. I have a new class on a Monday evening with Precious Sibanda who has been a member of the Lutheran church and therefore a lot of her questions have centred on baptism. Our next class will be on this subject being the third lesson in the Know-Your-Bible correspondence course. We pray that she will have a tender heart and be obedient to the gospel of Christ.

MIDWEEK CLASSES:

My list of engagements was as follows:
