

REPORT FOR DECEMBER 2005

January 9, 2006

I trust in God the Father that this year will be one of blessings for all. In the report for the month of December I don't have much to tell you. As I spoke with the brethren the first Sunday we met in this year 2006, we have a big problem rooted here in Venezuela. That is, taking the whole month of December for vacation; this has been reflected even in the spiritual field where the brethren and the contacts decide to take a rest in their search for salvation, strengthening, and spiritual growth, which makes my wife and I stop all our regular activities in the work.

I took advantage of this forced recess to study up for the debates I will have first of all, with Ali Pineda and also with two institutional brethren. I also was able to meet with Jose Diaz, the preacher in Cagua, every Thursday, as well as the church there.

Contacts:

We only have one contact remaining in the neighborhood and during this month we did not study with her because technically she was on a trip.

Sunday meetings:

The average attendance maintained it's low level because of what I've already explained. By the middle of this month it should return to normal.

Sunday classes:

We did not have classes during this month.

Other activities:

As I told you last month, thanks to God, Jose Diaz and I were able to get together and so will be meeting each Thursday in Cagua so I can teach him some things about personal work. Unfortunately for now, Brother Carmelo Fricano will not be able to meet with us, but hopefully will in the future. While there I will be also be sharing a series of lessons on marriage with the church there in Cagua, something we consider they need in this church.

That is all for the moment.

May God bless you.

Your brother in Christ, Gustavo Moreno
